

Ali Alrayyes
751 E Pine Knoll Dr. Apt 2205 Flagstaff, AZ 86002
E-mail: ama343@nau.edu

Career Objective

To obtain an Environmental Engineer position; where I will provide my capabilities, potentials and skills that cater the advancement and confirmation of the employer's mission and vision.

Education

- College of Technological Studies, Kuwait 2000-2003
  - Diploma in Mechanical Power Technology

- Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, AZ 2009-Present
  - Environmental Engineering Undergraduate
  - Expected graduation date: Fall 2013

Employment History

- Doha West Power Station, Kuwait 2003-2004
  - Control room operator in the general auxiliary building
  - Assigned to operate the water intake strainers and pumps; plant air compressors; plant AC chillers and duct system; emergency fire pumps; and water ionization unit.

- Kuwait Oil Company (KOC), Kuwait 2004-Present
  - Mechanical Foreman in the maintenance team
  - Planned and supervised mechanical maintenance activities according to KOC standards requirements for the below listed plants. Involved in machinery troubleshooting and overhauls. Assigned on the materials procurement project with vendors for the CIPF. Familiar with working on KOC permits, service orders and material requests.

  - Gas Booster Stations (BS140 & 150), 2004-2005
  - Seawater Treatment Plant (SWTP), 2006
  - Central Injection Pump Facility (CIPF), 2007-2008
  - Effluent Water Disposal Plant (EWDP), 2008-2009

  - Granted a scholarship in 2009 to obtain B.S. in Environmental Engineering to join the Health, Safety and Environment (HSE) team after earning the degree.