

Taylor Oster
928-853-5838
Flagstaff, Arizona
to64@nau.edu

Education

Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, Arizona

Graduation Date: May 2016

B.S. in Environmental Engineering

B.A. in Modern Languages, Global Science and Engineering – Spanish Emphasis

GPA: 3.98, Summa Cum Laude, Dean's List, Northern Arizona University

December 2011- present

Experience

Red Cloud Mine, Bureau of Land Management (client) - Yuma, AZ

May 2015-present

Engineering project team member

- Conducting preliminary assessment and site inspection of Red Cloud Mine

Pine Canyon Club- Flagstaff, AZ

May 2015- present

Server

- Coordinating large parties and events and interacting with public

Argentinian National Parks Administration- Ushuaia, Argentina

January 2015- May 2015

Volunteer and researcher

- Performed a trail sustainability investigation in two national parks
- Reported all findings through reports and Argentinian national sustainability conference presentations

English Tutor- Concepción, Chile

August 2014- December 2015

Tutor

- Taught grammatical and conversational English to university students

Young Life- Flagstaff, Arizona

August 2013- August 2014

Student Staff

- Directed and lead a team of nine people to plan projects and events
- Established Capernaum, an outreach program for youth with disabilities, in Flagstaff

W.L. Gore & Associates- Flagstaff, Arizona

May 2013- August 2013

Summer Hire

- Conducted lab research and supported the engineering Hybrid team
- Implemented change orders for document and process changes

Skills

- Experienced in AutoCAD, WaterGEMS, and all Microsoft applications
- Continued study and language proficiency in Spanish

Certifications

- OSHA 40-Hour Hazardous Waste Operations and Emergency Response (HAZWOPER)

Activities

- Global Science and Engineering Program

August 2011- present

- Capernaum volunteer- program for youth with disabilities

December 2011- present