

Meeting Minutes: Week 17 (spring break)

Attendance: All group Member

We are meeting at the engineering building to talk about our design, we done from the cart and now we are working on the track we go with two group. The first group assigned to finish the track. The second group assigned to add the features on the cart That was one of task today the other tasks are review the final report each team member's take a few parts to complete the report rubric, and we will go through the note that professor Sara told us about the final report. Also, we are working on the final CAD and bill of materials. We almost done from everything.

Team F4 Marshall Playground