Basic introduction:

Originally from China, Xuyang is pursuing a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering in Northern Arizona. During his undergraduate period, he learned how to use Solidworks, Matlab, Premiere Pro, and Dreamweaver, which gave him the skills needed to be a manufacturing engineer and build a website. After graduating from his undergraduate degree, he planned to continue his graduate program in the direction of fluid mechanics. Outside of school, he likes mountain biking, so he also has a certain knowledge of mechanical maintenance.
